COMPANY DESCRIPTION:

HOLLYWOOD YOUTH THEATRE exists to produce inventive, grounded artists through professional theater training and experiences that combine artistic excellence with personal integrity and a love for the arts.

Hollywood Youth Theatre is a new youth theatre in the Burbank area, and, after a successful summer camp kick-off program, HYT is eager to announce their fall semester plans. Classes this fall will focus on the fundamentals of acting and laying a good foundation for future class and performance work. Even performers who have been acting for years can greatly benefit from solid training in the essentials of the craft, giving them the best chance to succeed in their artistic endeavors.

Select classes will be offered Tuesdays – Thursdays. Each hour and a half class will meet once a week for 10 weeks beginning Sept. 27 through Dec. 8 (No classes the week of Thanksgiving).

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS:

LITTLE ARTISTS

Ages 4-6

Tues. 3:30 – 5:00 pm.

Sept. 27th – Dec. 6th

An exciting class embracing the magic of make-believe through theatre, this process-centered form of drama is designed to help young actors learn to work and play within a group, develop confidence, and let their imaginations soar.

STORYBOOK THEATRE

Ages 7-11

Thurs. 4:00-5:30 pm.

Sept. 29th – Dec. 8th

A ground-level course designed to teach grade-school artists the fundamentals of acting. Once a week, students will enter the amazing world of fairy tales as a tool to applying the principles of acting skills learned in class.

ACTING I

Ages 12-18

Wed. 4:00-5:30p

Sept 28th – Dec. 7th

This foundational course is great for learning the essentials in acting technique, creativity and theatre terminology. A process-oriented view of the acting process that aims to provide a basic understanding of the elements of acting, including character development, the actor's instrument and scene work.
